International Nurses Day (IND) is celebrated every year all around the world to commemorate the birth anniversary of the Florence Nightingale and to mark the nurses' contributions towards people's health.

Our nurses in the NICU, together with the medical staff were celebrating all together this important day to mark and be proud of the great work they do. They inspire, innovate, influence, they are warriors of love who fight along side of our babies, leading the battle to keep the baby alive and healthy. They are strong, competent and compassionate and have a lot of patience. More like a human-angel hybrid whose profession is more a way of life than a job.

Caring for sick babies and offering support to their families is rewarding in itself.

Head of NICU Department*

Celebration of the International Day of Nursing

At the United Nations in New York, In celebration of International Day of Nursing, The Nurses with Global impact honored 21 nurses from different parts of the world, including two Palestinian nurses working at the Holy Family Hospital in Bethlehem, Nurse Jamileh Mousa Abu Aida and nurse Hanan Saliba Banoura. They have dedicated themselves to working and serving Palestinian women for 26 years and in difficult and volatile circumstances in the Palestinian society, which has had a positive impact on the public health sector in Palestine.

Due to the busy schedule at HFH and lack of attendance at the official ceremony in New York at the United Nations Headquarters, Ambassador Michele Bowe Ambassador of the Order of Malta to the State of Palestine, along with the administration of the Holy Family Hospital represented by Elizabeth Anastas, The Director of Administration and Finance, honored them at the Holy Family Hospital.

The nurses were so touched to know that their lifelong work in Bethlehem has been recognized around the world.
